Atlantic Express carry's on the Tuileries Plaza FREE Concert success

KANSAS CITY, MO —The Tuileries Plaza has already welcomed hundreds to the FREE CONCERTS IN THE COURTYARD SERIES for some of Kansas City's favorite artists.

This week, Thursday, July 2nd features Dave Panico- "Soaring Saxman" at 6:30pm opening for long time Kansas City favorite variety band ATLANTIC EXPRESS at 7pm. You can expect an unforgettable lineup of dance, pop and funk from amazing talent that will have everyone dancing in the streets of Tuileries Plaza, with cover tunes ranging from Stevie Wonder, to Van Morrison, to Ike and Tina Turner. Atlantic Express is sure to bring down the house on July 2nd.

This concert is one of ten in the FREE CONCERTS IN THE COURTYARD SERIES, now featuring appetizers and beverages from Bonefish Grill. Arrive early for tenant specials, happy hours and live music every Thursday night through August 13th. The concert series is "standing room only," and attendees are encouraged to bring blankets and lawn chairs. No coolers please.

About Tuileries Plaza

Tuileries Plaza is the Northland's freshest mixed-use center, located at I-29 and NW 64th Street (Highway 45) in Kansas City. The center, with a European flair inspired by the Louvre Museum's Tuileries Gardens, is host to an exceptional mix of fashion retailers, one-of-a-kind specialty tenants, appetizing restaurants and professional offices. This unique venture is locally owned by George and Pamela Gunter, and Grubb & Ellis|The Winbury Group is the property and leasing management company. Tuileries Plaza is also opening the Tuileries Children's Garden for the summer season. Parents can bring their children to cool off in the misting river, climb the Eiffel Tower, walk the maze and enjoy the original tile mural created by Kansas City's own tile artist Carolyn Payne.
