KANSAS CITY, MO –Tuileries Plaza is kicking off the season of giving with its annual "Dickens of a Celebration", Saturday November 8th from 5PM to 8PM. Tuileries hopes to inspire the true spirit of the holiday season, with a Harvesters Community Network food drive.

As a thank you to the community, Tuileries Plaza is providing entertainment the whole family can enjoy: discount shopping, horse drawn sleigh rides, carriage rides, Dickens carolers, hand bell choir, delicious treats and much much more. There will also be an opportunity to win an evening out on the town to see Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol.

"We want to be The Event that kicks off the season in the spirit in which it is meant to be celebrated, the spirit of giving," said property co-owner, Pamela Gunter. "We want to give families an opportunity to come together with their community and have a good time. And we hope to encourage everyone to give little something to those in need this holiday season."

Tuileries Plaza (pronounced TWEE-luh-reez) is the Northland's freshest outdoor shopping center, located at I-29 and NW 64th Street (Highway 45) in Kansas City. The center, with a European flair inspired by the Louvre Museum's Tuileries Gardens, is host to an exceptional mix of fashion retailers, one-of-a-kind specialty shops, appetizing restaurants and professional offices. This unique venture is locally owned by George and Pam Gunter, managed by Prairieview Development, LLC of Kansas City and leased by CBRE. Visit <http://www.tuileriesplaza.com> for more information.
