Tuileries Plaza Summer Concert Series Presents Mike O’Roarke June 12

KANSAS CITY, MO — Tuileries Plaza is proud to present Mike O’Roarke and the Nitty Gritty Dirk’s Band live in a free concert 7 p.m. June 12 at the Tuileries Plaza courtyard, I-29 and NW 64th Street.

Mike O’Roarke, a Northland favorite, is a mix of country, bluegrass and comedy all in one show. He has played with some of the biggest names in country music, including Conway Twitty, Kenny Rogers and Alabama, just to name a few. He also is a regular feature at Dirk’s Bar and Grill, where he performs and emcees open mic night.

This concert is one of ten in the Tuileries Plaza Summer Concert Series. In addition to free live music every Thursday night through August 7, the series also will include family-friendly, interactive entertainment and activities throughout the summer. Children will enjoy a designated area created specifically for them known as the “Kids Korner.” The Kids Korner will house inflatables, face painting and an interactive area that will have keep your kids smiling. The concert series is “standing room only,” and attendees are encouraged to bring blankets and lawn chairs.

About Tuileries Plaza

Tuileries Plaza is the Northland’s freshest mixed-use center, located at I-29 and NW 64th Street (Highway 45) in Kansas City. The center, with a European flair inspired by the Louvre Museum’s Tuileries Gardens, is host to an exceptional mix of fashion retailers, one-of-a-kind specialty tenants, appetizing restaurants and professional offices. This unique venture is locally owned by George and Pamela Gunter, and CBRE is the leasing agent. Tuileries Plaza is also opening the Tuileries Children's Garden for the summer season. Parents can bring their children to cool off in the misting river, climb the Eiffel Tower, walk the maze and enjoy the original tile mural created by Kansas City's own tile artist Carolyn Payne. Tuileries Plaza is asking that visitors do not bring coolers to the events.
