Tuileries Plaza Summer Concert Series Presents Private Stock July 31

KANSAS CITY, MO — Tuileries Plaza is proud to present Private Stock live in a free concert 7 p.m. July 31 at the Tuileries Plaza courtyard, I-29 and NW 64th Street.

For more than 25 years, Private Stock has been known in Kansas City as a premier variety dance band. Whether you're in the mood for swing music, groovy tunes from the '60s and '70s, or more contemporary hits, you'll get your fill with Private Stock.

This concert is one of ten in the Tuileries Plaza Summer Concert Series. In addition to free live music every Thursday night through August 7, the series also will include family-friendly, interactive entertainment and activities throughout the summer. Children will enjoy a designated area created specifically for them known as the "Kids Korner." The Kids Korner will house inflatables, face painting and an interactive area that will have keep your kids smiling. The concert series is "standing room only," and attendees are encouraged to bring blankets and lawn chairs.

About Tuileries Plaza

Tuileries Plaza is the Northland's freshest mixed-use center, located at I-29 and NW 64th Street (Highway 45) in Kansas City. The center, with a European flair inspired by the Louvre Museum's Tuileries Gardens, is host to an exceptional mix of fashion retailers, one-of-a-kind specialty tenants, appetizing restaurants and professional offices. This unique venture is locally owned by George and Pamela Gunter, and CBRE is the leasing agent. Tuileries Plaza is also opening the Tuileries Children's Garden for the summer season. Parents can bring their children to cool off in the misting river, climb the Eiffel Tower, walk the maze and enjoy the original tile mural created by Kansas City's own tile artist Carolyn Payne. Tuileries Plaza is asking that visitors do not bring coolers to the events.
