Bonefish's beverages cool the crowd as the Tuileries' stage sizzle's

KANSAS CITY, MO —The Tuileries Plaza has already welcomed hundreds to the FREE CONCERTS IN THE COURTYARD SERIES for some of Kansas City's favorite artists Nathan Granner and Ida McBeth (picture attached) and Bonefish's beverages cooled the Tuileries Courtyard as the stage sizzled for and the classic rock of Neon Blue.

This week, Thursday, June 25th features the Northland's own School of Rock- House Band at 6:30 pm and Project Chameleon at 7 p.m. at the Tuileries Plaza courtyard, I-29 and NW 64th Street.

Tuileries Plaza welcomes for the first time the young talent of the "School of Rock- House Band". The group is made up of ten elite young local musicians who have been asked to perform on the ShipRocked cruise to Jamaica and the Grand Caymans, featuring Queensryche, Tesla, Skid Row and other high-profile bands.

Project Chameleon is Kansas City's ultimate rock and dance cover band. Come hear all your favorites under the stars delivered by this well-rounded group of musicians playing one hit after another that range from classic rock to new rock and pop, and everything in-between.

This concert is one of ten in the FREE CONCERTS IN THE COURTYARD SERIES, now featuring appetizers and beverages from Bonefish Grill (picture attached). Arrive early for tenant specials, happy hours and live music every Thursday night through August 13th. The concert series is “standing room only,” and attendees are encouraged to bring blankets and lawn chairs. No coolers please.

About Tuileries Plaza

Tuileries Plaza is the Northland’s freshest mixed-use center, located at I-29 and NW 64th Street (Highway 45) in Kansas City. The center, with a European flair inspired by the Louvre Museum’s Tuileries Gardens, is host to an exceptional mix of fashion retailers, one-of-a-kind specialty tenants, appetizing restaurants and professional offices. This unique venture is locally owned by George and Pamela Gunter, and Grubb & Ellis|The Winbury Group is the property and leasing management company. Tuileries Plaza is also opening the Tuileries Children’s Garden for the summer season. Parents can bring their children to cool off in the misting river, climb the Eiffel Tower, walk the maze and enjoy the original tile mural created by Kansas City’s own tile artist Carolyn Payne.
